MOBILE PAYMENT FORUM ANNOUNCES TWO NEW MEMBERS TO ITS BOARD OF DIRECTORS

WAKEFIELD, Mass., April 4, 2007 – The Mobile Payment Forum (MPF), a global cross-industry alliance of key organizations from the mobile and financial industries dedicated to the advancement of mobile (m) commerce, today announced two new members to its Board of Directors for the 2006 – 2008 term of office. Mark Fruehan, Vice President of Business Development of VeriSign, and Joseph Salesky, CEO of ClairMail, have joined the Board to enhance the development and deployment of global m-commerce solutions.

"As the leading provider of solutions that optimize mobile phones for two-way customer interaction, ClairMail must collaborate with other industry leaders to ensure that m-commerce reaches its full potential," said Joseph Salesky, CEO of ClairMail. "The Mobile Payment Forum is central to that effort. I look forward to working with the rest of the Board to ensure that all mobile payments are standardized, secure and authenticated."

About the Mobile Payment Forum

The Mobile Payment Forum brings together leading organizations from the mobile and financial industries to create a foundation for standardized, secure and authenticated mobile payments. Our members bring extensive experience in creating interoperable global payment standards and specifications and a knowledge of payments in emerging channels. Membership includes key financial institutions, telecommunications operators, wireless-device manufacturers, merchants, content providers and software and hardware developers and vendors. The Mobile Payment Forum is a nonprofit membership organization, incorporated in the state of Delaware in the United States.
